

Libeert Belgian Chocolate Creators

Gondola Storecheck Personality Award 2022-2023

This prestigious award in the Belux food retail and consumer industry, is recognizing the most dynamic managers and entrepreneurs, who have invested exceptionally for their company and the sector.

Lily Libeert is very proud of this award. Tradition and innovation go hand in hand at Libeert. Great-grandfather Joseph Libeert got creative with chocolate, and that is what his great-grandchildren still do today. They monitor trends and create novelties thanks to their know-how and innovative power in-house.

Every generation adds something to the family business, today's generation adds sustainability. Their production runs 100% on green energy from wind turbines, solar panel parks or cogeneration.

The centenarian Libeert not only stands for delicious chocolate, but also for fair chocolate.

